This unique summer learning opportunity will focus on enriching student literacy and knowledge retention over the summer to prevent learning loss. It will offer enriching, experiential learning with culturally responsive and relevant curriculum. Activities will empower students.

Students will receive free breakfast, snack and lunch through the daily program schedule.

About Children's Defense Fund (CDF) Freedom Schools: Through the CDF Freedom Schools model, we empower youth to excel and believe in their ability to make a difference in themselves, their families, communities, country, and world with hope, education, and action.
